

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES WHO VOTED FOR THE EMERGENCY ECONOMIC STABILIZATION ACT

October 3, 2008

Dear Representative:

We are writing to express our strong appreciation for the vote you cast in support of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act today.

Yours was both a correct and a courageous vote given the state of public opinion on this legislation. Sentiment is decisively changing toward support for enactment of a package as people have come to more fully understand the consequences of inaction, reinforcing the wisdom of your decision.

Failure of Congress to act would certainly have increased economic anxiety in the country and deepened the already damaging credit crisis. We are confident that enactment of this critical legislation will help stabilize markets and restore credit liquidity.

Thank you very much for your principled vote on behalf of the American economy, families, and businesses.

Sincerely,
